

Westlake Students

of the week!

December 11, 2020

Room 1 - 3rd Grade

Kaylee Rojas is this week's student of the week. She has been an enthusiastic sharer this week with our Jack and the Beanstalk story. She offers her opinions freely and enjoys adding on to others comments. She was excited about continuing reading the story and thrilled about joining in the conversation about what would happen next and why characters did what they did. Thanks for helping make such a fun discussion with this week's story.

Room 2 - 2nd Grade

Abdallah Joseph is our student of the week. Abdallah comes to every Zoom meeting. He also attends his reading group 4 days a week - wow! He always completes his Seesaw assignments, he has been working really hard. Abdallah has a great sense of humor and often has fun stories or observations to share with the class. Good job Abdallah, keep up the good work!

Room 5 - 3rd Grade

Jesus Santos Campos is our student of the week. Jesus has been actively participating in class discussions. He is enthusiastic about what we have been reading and has a positive attitude about school. Jesus works well with others and is fun to have in class. He completes his assignments and asks for help when he needs it. I'm happy to see him raise his hand more to share his thoughts and answer questions. Keep up the good work, Jesus!

Room 6 - 3rd Grade:

Amina Mukhamadieva: Amina is doing very well with Virtual Learning. Amina completes all her assignments, and is an active participant in class discussions. She always has something interesting to add to our discussions in class, or an insightful observation to share. Amina is eager to learn, she's very creative and has a super-positive attitude about school. Amina is a good friend, and supports all her classmates with her positive attitude.

Room 7 - Kindergarten:

Yousef Saleh is the Student of the Week for Room7. When he started school he was just beginning to speak English. Yousef has worked very hard during zoom class and he has completed all of his Seesaw assignments. We are all so proud of him and he is now speaking to his friends in English

Room 8- 2nd Grade

Anas Alghaithi is Room 8's Student of the Week. Anas is a kind, respectful boy. He likes magic tricks, sharing, and spending time with his baby brother. Anas always attends Zoom meetings and completes online assignments. He's a good student and friend.

Room 9 - TK

Bryden Wu is the TK student of the week. Bryden is always one of the first to sign in to Zoom class. He participates during class time and answers questions asked of him. Keep up the good work Bryden!

Room 10- 5th Grade:

Colette Dea is our Student of the Week! Colette has grown tremendously in the past couple of weeks and is doing a wonderful job completing her assignments. She is putting in her best effort and is excellent at communicating with me about her work. I am also proud of Colette for being willing to help her classmates with assignments and technology issues. Outstanding job, Colette!

Room 11- 1st Grade:

Mekkah Dawan is our Student of the Week! She has been working hard to keep up with all of her assignments in Seesaw, Benchmark and Lexia. In fact, she logged 148 minutes in Lexia last week! She actively participates during all of our Zoom sessions and has really started to raise her hand more and more! Way to go! Keep up the awesome work Mekkah!

Room 16 - Kindergarten:

Sabrina Khachatryan is our Student of the Week! Sabrina always participates during our Zoom sessions. She is not afraid to ask questions or let me know if she needs help. She is making a lot of progress in remembering the weekly sight words. She works hard to sound out words during our reading group. Great job, Sabrina!

Room 18 - 4th Grade

Nikolas Cassiano is Room 18's Student of the Week! Nikolas loves to learn, and he comes to our Zoom class everyday ready to participate. He is a kind and thoughtful student. He is always trying and he really puts the effort to turn in class requirements on time. He takes notes in math to help him with his homework. He also loves to practice reading with me after class so he can read books to his mom in English. With determination and support from his family, I believe that Nikolas will meet his goals in 4th grade. Congratulations Nikolas.

Room 20 - 1st/2nd Grade

Hip, hip Hooray for Remy Glang. He has done a great job this year in school. He participates in zoom discussions, does all his homework, and shares his ideas. He enjoys being in school and is an active learner. He practices reading everyday and comprehends all he reads. He is a good big brother to Fin. He is working on his writing skills and has not given up. Well done, Remy. :)

Room 21 - 4th/5th Grade

Congratulations to our student of the week Aurora Le! Aurora has done an outstanding job of being an active listener and participant in our zoom meetings. She is a hard worker who is always willing to go above and beyond. She regularly attends office hours to not only get help but also is willing to help others. She has exceeded expectations and on top of that, is kind to all. Great work, Aurora!
